

A FAMILY, CONNECTED

The Young family.

A little closer to where you come from.

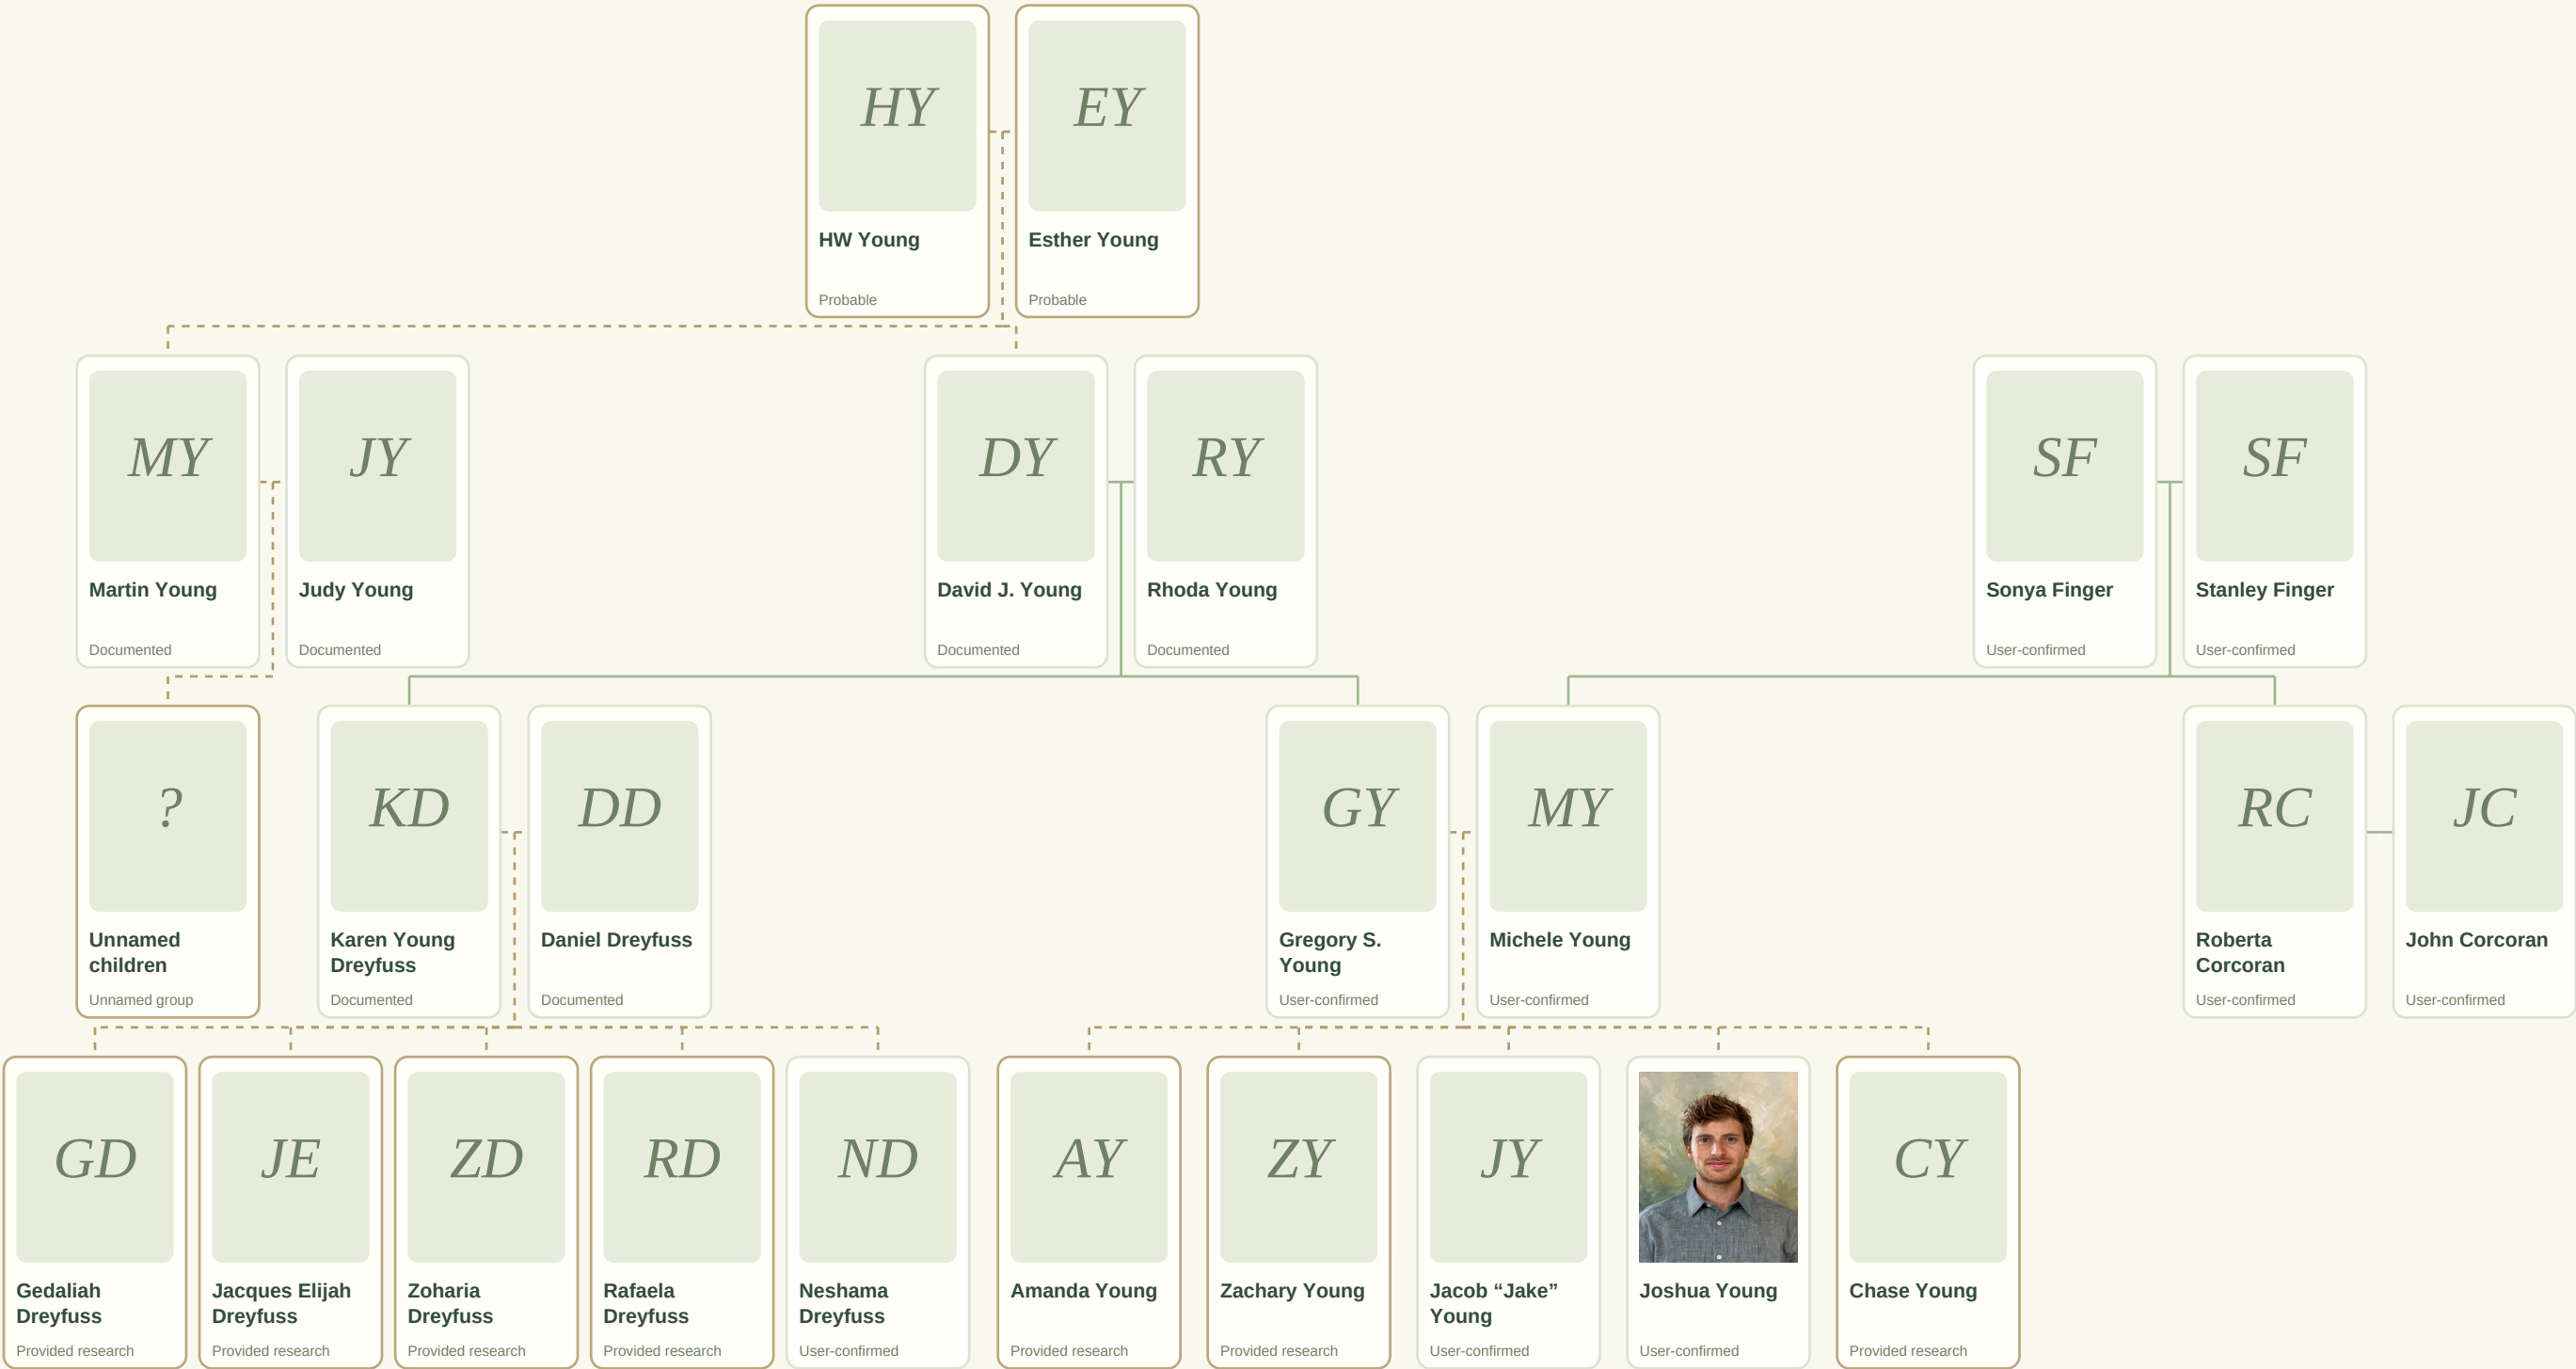

AI-painted portrait based on Joshua's photo.

People. Connections. Stories.

This keepsake contains the expanded family example: 24 named people or identity leads and one unnamed family-group placeholder. It includes living relatives. Keep it private unless those people are comfortable with sharing.

Available facts only. Missing dates stay unknown. User confirmation, supplied research and probable connections are distinguished throughout.

Every branch has a beginning.

Solid connections: documented or user-confirmed. Dashed connections: supplied research, mixed evidence or probable. Names with incomplete identities remain research leads. The unnamed group is not counted as a person.

Large-format overview / print on A3 landscape. Person profiles follow on A4 pages. This tree uses the original example layout.

Joshua Young

User-confirmed

Parents: Gregory & Michele Young (User-confirmed)

Sibling: Jacob Young (User-confirmed)

Name match: Joshua Brendan - probable match (Probable)

Joshua Young’s family brings together the Young and Finger branches. His parents, Gregory and Michele Young, connect him to grandparents David and Rhoda Young on his father’s side, and Sonya and Stanley Finger on his mother’s side. Jacob “Jake” Young is his brother. The family extends through both sides of that tree. Gregory’s sister, Karen Young Dreyfuss, married Daniel Dreyfuss. Michele’s twin sister, Roberta Corcoran, married John Corcoran and had no children. Roberta died in 2022. These connections form the beginning of Joshua’s family story, with more of the generations still to discover.
